----- 3S Web Tools is a Javascript editor and a script/applet collector that is simple to use. There are some missing features (just like most script collections) but overall, 3S Web Tools is more advanced than simple Javascript tools. This collection is released under the LGPL license. This means that you can: ♦♦ Use, modify and distribute the script collection; ♦♦ Use it as it is for free; ♦♦ Use it commercially, but you have to charge a price for the non-LGPL version (exclusive of author's fee). ABOUT THIS SET: ----- This is a set of scripts to play the Japanese arcade game "Fatal Fury 2". Basically this means the name of the game is Fatal Fury 2. FATAL FURY 2 Fatal Fury 2 is a 2-D fighting game, based on the "Street Fighter II" series. "Fatal Fury 2" is a somewhat radical step for the SNK series. The game is 2-D, but the graphics still retain the style and nature of "Street Fighter II". As a result, this is not a direct clone of "Street Fighter II", but rather a fusion of the characteristics of both games. Also the game has been made into an interactive movie, with pre-rendered (and computer-generated) animated graphics (just like the anime "Neon Genesis Evangelion"). The plot begins in the year 2096. A huge space battle has taken place in the outermost orbit of the planet Earth. As the Earth was besieged, the colony on the planet Plaoi lost power. The only hope left for the colony was a rescue fleet that was sent to the planet. The fleet was stranded in an asteroid belt and was unable to leave the planet. The rescue fleet remained stranded for 7 years. The fight for survival began with the birth of a young man, Andy Bogard. Andy is a descendant of the Bogards, which was the family that played "Fatal Fury" in the Japanese arcades. Andy as a youth comes to the planet Plaoi with the help of an alien civilization called the "Ha'nu". His mission was to
