Publisher's Description: Sticky Notepad is a sticky notes application to write down anything, of any type and size, and leave it on your desktop. Changes to the sticky notes can be saved, so you never need to restart the application. When everything is written down, the sticky notes can be cleared or used as a template for new notes. Sticky Notepad can be fully customized by including third-party data, such as dates, time, tags, reminders, and links. Sticky notes can be created with a wide variety of shapes, which all have their own colors. Sticky Notepad is a simple and extremely useful utility. All is well, thanks. JustNotification is a tiny notification window that works just like a sticky note does except it puts a notification in a window instead. No need to create a note and then drag it off to your desktop. Product has been tested for days to clear files when Windows hibernates (suspends). Clearing files can be performed with a Windows keystroke. Product works perfectly. You can use it to clear files from memory, freeing up available RAM and closing down the system. Product is also completely customizable via configuration file settings. Gives you more space on your desktop: Remove the desktop on the right (for this window) so that you have

---
